FOURTH OF JULY

Will be Celebrated in a Sane Way at Louisa.

Everybody Invited to Come in and Help Celebrate Our Greatest National Holiday.

This year Louisa is going to celebrate the Fourth of July in fine style. If you doubt it read the program and be convinced. Music, vocal and instrumental, oratory, games, balloon ascension, and a crack game of base ball played by two good clubs. It would be worth a big admission fee to hear the various candidates tell how qualified they are to fill the various offices, and how poorly equipped the "other fellow" is. But the entire entertainment is absolutely free for all, and you are cordially urged to come and spend to come and spend the day in Louisa. We will help you make it a day of innocent enjoyment. You need the relaxation from your daily labors, and you need the celebration of the glorious anniversary as a patriotic reminder that the great things now enjoyed by us cost the blood and lives of those who fought that we may be free.

COME, and help us make the 4th of July, 1913, a great event in our local history.

Mrs. Letitia Armstrong.

Paris, Ky., June 23.—Mrs. Letitia Armstrong, 70, died in a Lexington hospital last night, following a stroke of paralysis. The body was brought to the home of her sister, Mrs. Anna Embry, in this city, from which place the funeral will take place to-morrow. Mrs. Armstrong was the wife of Frank Armstrong, a former Sheriff and insurance man of Bourbon. Mrs. Armstrong lived with her daughter in Cannel City, before being brought to the hospital for treatment.—Lexington Leader.

Mrs. Armstrong was the mother-in-law of Mr. Sam Freese, formerly of this city. She was a woman of rare accomplishments and a musician of much ability. Mrs. Frank Freese, of this city attended the funeral at Paris.

DECEASED AT WILLARD.

Shiland Independent contains announcement of the wedding of Mabel Peay, of Willard, to Matt Evans, of Paintsville on June 21 at her home in Willard.

For the past three years in Paintsville High School and has an enviable reputation as such. The couple will reside in Paintsville. The bride is known in Louisa, where she has visited.

KENTUCKY PRESS ASSOCIATION.

The Kentucky Press Association had one of the most delightful meetings in its history week before last at Olympian Springs. There was a large attendance of congenial persons. The excellent programme was well executed. The popular President, Mr. Ed. Shinnick, of Shelbyville, made a pleasing presiding officer. Mr. John S. Lawrence, of Cadiz, was chosen to succeed him for the ensuing year. After thanking the Association for the honor John apologized for being the youngest man ever elected to this position. Some of those present believe John is older than he thinks he is.

The meeting began Monday and closed Friday. The program covered not only shop talk, but several topics of general interest, such as tax revision, education, good roads, prison reform, etc. Mr. Jas. Speed, of Louisville, who is an important factor in the movement that is arousing the State of Kentucky on the subject of education and good roads, made an interesting address. Lawrence was the only county that received special mention from him, and that was on the plan originated here to build a piece of good road as each school house in the county. He spoke of this as one of the best ideas of the present campaign.

Olympian Springs is a delightful spot, conceded to be the most attractive watering place in Kentucky. The main building is being enlarged and improved, to take care of the large crowds that always flock there.

ONE THOUSAND HOUSES.

Contract Let for Buildings in New Elkhorn Fuel Co. Town.

The Elkhorn Fuel Co. is about to begin the extensive construction required in connection with its plan for developing 300,000 acres of coal land—285,000 in Kentucky and 15,000 in West Virginia. This $30,000,000 corporation, whose organization and plans were announced several months ago, has awarded contract to the Nicola Building Company of Pittsburgh for constructing 1000 buildings in connection with plans for a modern mining town in Letcher county, Kentucky, where developments will begin. These structures are mainly dwellings, but they include stores, business blocks, etc. The lumber and bricks needed will be manufactured by the Elkhorn corporation in plants which it is about to build. These will include works with a daily capacity of 50,000 bricks, and saw, planing and finishing mills with a daily capacity of 30,000 feet of lumber each. There will also be provided such public utilities as water-works, electric-lighting service, etc., for the town.

It is understood that the land to be developed comprises about 60 per cent. of the Elkhorn coking coal field, and lies principally to the north of the Consolidation Coal Co.'s development, being mainly in the watersheds between the Kentucky and Big Sandy rivers and north along Beaver creek and other tributaries of Big Sandy, Kentucky and Licking rivers. The lands are said to be underlaid from 75 to 80 per cent. by the Elkhorn seam, which produces high-grade coking, gas-producing, open-hearth malleable and by-product coal. The seams are from four to eight feet thick, and are estimated to yield an average of 5500 net tons per acre. The analysis, believed to be the average quality for the entire region, is as follows: Moisture, 2.00; volatile, 35.00; fixed carbon, 59.00; ash, 4.00; sulphur, .75; phosphorus, .004.—Manufacturers Record.

KENTUCKY KIDS BAIRED.

Children under the age of fourteen years cannot legally be employed by persons other than their parents. Attorney-General Garnett so declared in his written opinion to Commissioner of Agriculture Newman.

Many requests have been received by Newman from parents asking that their children under 14 years be permitted to be employed during vacation by persons other than themselves.

Attorney-General Garnett holds that even the Labor Inspectors shall not give a special permit for the children to become employed.

An Excellent Entertainment.

In the rush and hurry of last week the NEWS neglected to notice one of the best entertainments of the kind ever presented by the Sunday school of the Louisa Baptist church. It was the annual observance of Children's Day, and from invocation to dismissal it was a delightful occasion. It was a children's affair, with but little if any aid from their elders, and the varied programme was successfully designed to present them to the audience in a way which represented the day and what it was intended for. The participants in the unusually interesting exercises showed the result of careful and intelligent training, saying and doing in a very pleasing way what they had been taught to do and say. The NEWS refrains from making any individual mention of the children. All did well, and to make comparisons would be unfair to those not mentioned by name.

The final number was a pantomimic presentation by several girls of "Nearer, My God, To Thee," and was a most beautiful and effective rendering of that litany of the soul. The words of the hymn were sweetly sung by Mrs. W. D. Pierce, of this city.

CITY SCHOOL TEACHERS.

At a recent meeting of the Louisa Board of Education the following teachers were chosen for the ensuing term of the public school:

Prof. W. M. Byington, principal; Assistants, Prof. E. M. Kennison, Dock Jordan, Miss Sallie Gearheart, Miss May Sammons, Miss Virgie Hale, and Miss Alice Smith, of Cynthia, Ky. Miss Smith is a sister-in-law of Prof. J. R. Johnson, of Eastern Kentucky Normal School. School will begin Monday, Aug. 11.

TWO FINE SERMONS.

Bishop Anderson, of Cincinnati preached what every one who heard it called a splendid sermon at the M. E. Church Wednesday afternoon. The Bishop is a man of great ability and learning, and much regret is felt that the inconvenient, and to many the impossible hour prevented a general hearing.

AUTOS AND HACKS.

Regular automobile and hack service has been put on by the Consolidation Coal Company between McRoberts and Jenkins. The road recently completed by the company is a model highway. Two trips a day each way are made.

Only those who are familiar with previous conditions in that part of the State can appreciate the one now existing.

THE BEST OF ALL.

Good Roads Association Organized and Subscription List Started.

On June 14 citizens of Lower East Fork, Bolts Fork, Brammer Gap and Catt, and all that section of country met and formed a good roads association, dividing the road into sections from Bolts Fork to Wobbsville for the purpose of putting it in good shape. There was a subscription list started and three hundred and sixty dollars subscribed towards working the roads.

We have not the names of all the parties who were there but V. B. Shortridge subscribed $100; Jess K. Woods $100; Morton Hammonds $75, the money to be spent along the sections where the parties live donating.

This is a step forward in the march of improvement. The best men in the county are alive to the vital importance of the roads movement, and there should be no let up until the whole county is a network of highways fit for travel.

JUST RIGHT.

METHODISTS

Of Ashland District Hold Annual Meeting at Louisa.

The Ministerial and Layman's Association of Ashland District, Kentucky Conference was held in this city in the M. E. Church June 23, 24 and 25. It was organized Tuesday, June 23, at 9 o'clock a. m. with the following officers and committees:

President, Dr. J. B. McClay; Secretary, Rev. G. N. Jolly; committee on pastors' salary, C. B. Plummer, O. J. Corder; committee on evangelization, J. A. Lewis, H. E. Trent, F. T. Kelley, committee on resolutions, A. P. Smith, H. D. Cooper, G. N. Bradford, committee on school, J. B. McClay, Bradford and Plummer, and committee on benevolence, Corder, Rowe and Howes.

Bishop W. F. Anderson, Cin'ti. Dr. J. B. McClay, Ashland, Dr. Gilliam, Ashland, Rev. F. T. Kelley, Russell, Rev. J. A. Williams, Ashland, Rev. H. E. Trent, Gallup, Rev. O. J. Corder, Paintsville, Rev. G. W. Howes, Olive Hill, Rev. Cyrus Riffle, Fullerton, Rev. G. W. Jolly, Greenup, Rev. G. W. Bradford, Vanceburg, Rev. W. M. Jones, Ludlow, Rev. W. H. Marra, Vanceburg, Rev. A. W. Rowe, Pikeville, Rev. J. F. Ruggles, Advance, Rev. H. D. Cooper, Toleboro, Rev. A. P. Smith, Catlettsburg, Rev. J. A. Lewis, Pikeville, Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson, Ashland, Mrs. Dora Bridge, Portsmouth.

The organization of association was preceded by devotional exercises conducted by Rev. Wade Rowe, formerly of Ft. Gay. All day sessions were held on Tuesday and Wednesday, when various topics interesting and of vital importance to the church were discussed. Symposia of Missions, Church Extension and Education were held at which the various phases of these subjects were presented.

On Monday evening Dr. J. B. McClay preached a splendid sermon to an audience which completely filled the church. His theme was "Four-Square men." It was a McClay sermon from exordium to peroration, replete with eloquence and spirituality.

On a related C. & O. train Tuesday evening the Rev. Frederick F. Shannon, of Brooklyn, arrived in Louisa, where the friends of his youth delight to speak of him as "Our Fred." He and Mrs. Shannon and Frederick, Jr., went to the home of his brother, E. E. Shannon, where he was allowed to stay just long enough to eat and rest awhile after his long, hot ride from New York, where he was bundled across the street into a church where pews and aisles were packed with people. After a glowing tribute paid him by Dr. McClay by way of introducing "a man who needed no introduction, as the doctor put it, Mr. Shannon, presided a sermon which was a masterpiece—rich in thought and eloquent in utterance. With its wealth of scholarly knowledge and striking imagery it was simplicity itself.

His text was taken from the gospel of Luke, the 24th chapter and the eighth verse: And they remembered His word. His theme was Christianized memory. Up to the eleventh hour and the fifty-ninth second of the fifty-ninth minute it was thought that Bishop W. F. Anderson, of Cincinnati, would preach Wednesday evening, but it was not to be so, for the Ohio prelate changed his hour to 2 in the afternoon, greatly to the disappointment of many, and went on to Paintsville, where he preached at night.

The efficient choir of the church was the means of rendering the evening services doubly attractive. It sings well under the direction of the pastor.

The famed Louisa hospitality was fully up to its high repute and was appreciated. Delegates, lay and ministerial, go away loud in hearty expressions of their warm regard for Louisa and her people.

A COMING EVENT.

An event which promises to be a notable and interesting one is set for Sunday evening next, and the fulfillment of the promise is assured. The occasion will be the annual observance of Children's Day at the M. E. Church South. The children of the church have had many very delightful entertainments of this character, the mere announcement of which invariably fills the commodious building full to running over. The programme for the evening has not been published, but the word has gone out that it is the best ever. There is high grade material to be used, and it will be handled in a way to gladden the eye and the ear of what should be a large and appreciative gathering. Let us hope the weather provided for this affair will for once be propitious.

A NEW PONY.

When Master Frederick Shannon, of Brooklyn, detained at Louisa on Tuesday last he found a handsome Shetland pony waiting for him, the gift of his uncle Ernest. Frederick, the pony and George Mauger are inseparable, only occupying different stalls at night.

TWO-CENT FARE.

United States Supreme Court Upholds West Virginia Law.

The decision in the two-cent rate case has been awaited with great interest throughout the section of West Virginia traversed by the lines of the Chesapeake & Ohio and other lines which have been charging fare in excess of two cents per mile under the protection of temporary injunctions since the law went into effect in 1911. Under the original court ruling, that of Judge Burdette of the circuit court of Kanawha county, the railroad was ordered to issue coupons providing for the payment of the excess charge in case the two cent law be sustained. Thousands of dollars worth of these coupons are held by travelers, speculators and others.

What preparation has been made for the meeting of the situation by the Chesapeake & Ohio is not known but it is not considered likely that, under the circumstances, the company will be seriously embarrassed.

The Chesapeake & Ohio, through its attorneys, started the fight on the two cent law after it had been in effect only a few months. An injunction order was issued prohibiting the attorney general of West Virginia and the prosecuting attorney of various counties from enforcing the two cent rate law. The injunction was finally dissolved by Judge Burdette and the railroad carried the case to the supreme court of the state which also refused to make the order permanent. Finally it was taken to the court of last resort where the law was finally upheld.

The Baltimore and Ohio railroad has never contested the law but has operated on a two cent passenger rate since it went into effect in the state.

BAD ANKLE.

Elm Thornhill, of Saltper, is laid up with a very bad ankle. Some time ago he jumped from a moving N. and W. train and sustained a bad sprain, but did not think much of it until it began to swell and he painful. It went on from bad to worse until the services of a doctor became necessary. The injured ankle had to be split open for a considerable distance in order that relief could be given. This was done by Dr. Ira Wellman at the patient's home.

Railroad Work Suspended.

The C. and O. railway has ordered all improvement work on its lines suspended. This does not include the new line being built on Beaver, so we are informed. Shortage of money is given as the cause.

Fort Gay Arrest and "Escape."

On Wednesday, of this week the Police Judge of Jenkins telegraphed here to arrest J. P. Matnoy, charged with stealing $600. He was described as about 5 feet 10 inches tall, blue eyes, sandy curly hair, scar on nose and wrist.

A man said to fill this description as to the scars and practically in all respects except the curly hair and a slight variance in height, was found at Fort Gay, just across the river from here. He had just had his hair cut rather short and it is possible that the hair was somewhat curly when long.

He was arrested on suspicion by local West Virginia authorities. It was reported that he had a considerable sum of money, a pistol and a watch. Later it was reported that he had escaped from the guard. We are told that this guard was in Louisa yesterday and indicated that he did not want to hold the fellow to answer the charge of carrying a pistol. This offense calls for very severe punishment in West Virginia. Judge Wilkinson may not agree with this method of handling violators of the law.

Forty-Three Years Later.

In 1869 what is known as the Goodwin survey of the town of Louisa was adopted by the board of trustees as defining the limits of Louisa. The survey left many houses and fences on the streets, and sundry orders were passed from time to time by the board, directing their removal. Among others was what is still known as the Sweetnam property at the corner of Madison and Jefferson-sts. The fence on the west side of the residence was removed after much objection and long delay, but the house, now the property of Green Meek, of Huntington, remained on its original foundation until a few days ago, the work of its removal was begun. It will be moved to another site on the same lot.

SEVERELY HURT.

One day last week while James, the little son of Billie Wilson, was climbing over a pile of large water mains one of them rolled to the bottom, carrying the boy with it. It rolled over him, very badly bruising and mashing his face. His body was also painfully hurt. Medical aid was obtained and the lad is now not much the worse for his painful experience. The accident occurred near the freight depot.

LAST OF THE SEASON.

The Finch Club played the final games of the season on Thursday last, with Mrs. Guy Atkinson hostess. The occasion, like those which preceded it, was delightful and was much enjoyed.

The out-of-town guests were Mrs. Atkinson's aunt, Miss Templeton, and her cousin, Miss Tadlock, both of Texas. The fall meetings of the club begin the first Thursday in October.

EXAMINATION RESULTS.

There were 32 applicants for certificates in the June examination in Lawrence Co., 31 for County and 1 for State.

One first, nine seconds and one third grade certificate were issued, and 21 applicants failed.

Examination for colored applicants Friday and Saturday of this week.

RECEIVED PAINFUL HURT.

On Sunday last the little son of John Chapman was "passing" ball with a playmate about his own age, using a large marble for a ball. They were throwing it back and forth at a lively rate, when the Chapman lad missed it with his hands and caught it squarely between the eyes. It made a very ugly bruise which demands the attention of a doctor. He is all right now.

A CONSUMMATE NUISANCE.

Near the building in which the colored school is taught is an overflowing vault which has become a consummate nuisance. When the wind is from that quarter the stenosis is intolerable. In addition to this there are unlawful hog pens not far away which increase the foul odor. Complaint has been made but the nuisance remains.

Friday, June 27, 1913.

Two small boys in a boat were caught in the rapids and swept away below Niagara Falls Sunday.

It is reported in Charleston that the miners in the Coal river and other districts will go out on strike July 1st.

The work of erecting 5,000 tents to accommodate 40,000 war veterans expected to attend the reunion on the fiftieth anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg has begun.

Condemned for the murder of Hardin Ingraham, in Shelby county two years ago, Tom Marlin and Tom Lawson, negroes, were electrocuted in the State Penitentiary at Eddyville Friday.

When denied his freedom on probation after conviction for attempted highway robbery, Roy M. Stewart fired three shots at the judge and prosecuting attorneys in the Washington, D. C. Criminal Court.

That the Webb liquor law is not a criminal statute and infractions cannot be prosecuted in the Federal courts was the declaration of Attorney General McReynolds in instructions sent out to District Attorneys.

Taylor Billups, of this city, has withdrawn as the Bull Moose candidate for Sheriff, and is a candidate on the same ticket for the nomination for the Legislature to represent the district composed of Boyd and Lawrence.

Attorney General Garnett holds that essential requirements of a candidate under the Kentucky primary law are that he be a qualified elector and that he be affiliated with and "supported" the candidates of the party whose candidate he wishes to be.

The Court of Appeals, in passing upon two diametrically opposite opinions from Johnson and Jefferson counties, upheld both, saying that there was no appeal from the Circuit Courts under the primary law, declaring that in such cases it had no jurisdiction.

The property of the Kentucky Children's Home Society, Louisville, will be placed in the name of the State of Kentucky, and the Governor will have the power to appoint ten members of the State Board of Managers out of a total of thirty, and five members of the Executive Committee of fifteen.

For probably the first time in the history of Louisville, a negro has become an aspirant for a seat in the Kentucky Legislature. He is Lee Brown and he is candidate for the Republican nomination for Representative in the Fifth district, the territorial boundaries of which are co-extensive with the Tenth ward, the political Darktown of the metropolis.

Washington, June 16.—The entire Federal civil rights act of 1875, imposing criminal penalties for discrimination against negroes, was declared void today by the U. S. Supreme Court. The Court held that because it was not applicable uniformly throughout the country it was entirely unconstitutional.

The decision establishes the right of railroads to put negroes in "Jim Crow" cars, separate from whites. The Court's decision was unanimous.

A State not far from the east end of the Louisa and Fort Gay bridge is sadly in need of a Jim Crow law, huh.

"The President of the United States." For the second time in a century this announcement was made at the bar of the House of Representatives when on Monday Woodrow Wilson appeared to deliver in person his message upon currency legislation. A little more than six weeks ago the President revived a practice which had been abandoned since the days of Jefferson, when personally appeared to Congress for revision in keeping with the wishes of the dominant party in the House and Senate.

The setting for the day's ceremony was not much different than when the first "communication" was presented. The same crowds filled the galleries. The members of the Senate sat in jolt session with the House as before. Diplomats occupied a reserved space, and as on the former occasion, members of the Cabinet were present to hear the message.

It was a brief ceremony, but it was impressive. The attention paid the speaker was profound. Not a word from his lips escaped those within the four walls. In eleven minutes from the time the President had ascended the Speaker's rostrum and bowed to the assembled statesmen, he had concluded, and had turned to pay his respects to Speaker Clark and Vice President Marshall.

Mr. John McDyer, of Ashland is the Democratic candidate to represent the Boyd-Lawrence district in the next Legislature, and will have no opposition in the August primary. Mr. McDyer has for many years been a resident of Boyd county, but he is a native of Lawrence. He is well and favorably known all over the district as an intelligent, sober, honest man, of unblemished character and well equipped by training and experience for the position to which he aspires.

A recent decision touching the Webb law has taken down the bars considerably and the season of blissful quietude and peace that reigned for awhile is at an end. The bootleggers and perjurers are to be served by the express companies just as well as before the law was enacted. A groan went up from the good people of the Big Sandy Valley when they heard this bad news. Drunkenness was less in evidence in the worst neighborhoods than was ever before known. One railroad contractor on Beaver said the law as enforced prior to his decision was worth one thousand dollars per month to his firm and several times that to the citizenship of Beaver creek. We often wonder how long our government and courts will continue to aid in the sale and distribution of this greatest of all weapons of murder and suicide.

CONFEDERATE PENSIONS VALID.

Frankfort, Ky., June 20.—The Court of Appeals today affirmed the Franklin Circuit Court, upholding the constitutionality of the Confederate pension act of 1912, and granting to James Harp, of Frankfort, a Confederate pensioner, a writ of mandamus requiring State Auditor H. M. Bosworth to issue a warrant for his February pension claim.

Judge Lassing dissented. The opinion of the court was written by Chief Justice Hobson. Over 600 pensions at $10 a month have been granted and 3,000 applicants are before the board. It was estimated in the Attorney General's brief that the pensions will amount to an annual expenditure of more than $300,000.

The court held that Confederate soldiers performed a public service, excepting them from the operation of the constitutional prohibition against granting "exclusive privileges of emoluments" and taking the case out of class legislation. The court said the right to grant pensions is recognized everywhere. The court reviewed the history leading up to the Civil War, and declared that the Confederate soldiers fought for the principle of State sovereignty, a doctrine well recognized all over the country before the war, and in thus defending the sovereignty of Kentucky were performing a public service. The instructions in the pension act for the Auditor to issue warrants for the pensions, the court said, was an appropriation within the meaning of the Constitution.

In his dissenting opinion, Judge Lassing said the act is not general application and violates Section 59, Subsection 29, of the Constitution. While he admitted the valor and heroism of soldiers of the lost cause he says he cannot agree that they performed a public service to the nation or State, within the meaning of the Constitution.

No decision was rendered in the Prison Commission case of the State Board against J. C. Smith, a prisoner at Eddyville penitentiary, who secured an order from Judge Stout, in the Franklin Circuit Court to force the Prison Commission to grant him a parole, claiming that under the terms of the indeterminate sentence every prisoner whose record was good was entitled to parole after serving two years of his term.

The court in this case is said to have stood three, and three, and Judge Nunn is ill.

A Tuberculosis Exhibit car is now touring Kentucky at the expense of the State. The Big Sandy Valley is not in the advertised itinerary.

PRIMARY LAW UPHOLD.

Frankfort, Ky., June 20.—"Confusion worse confounded" describes the provisions for the qualification of candidates in the State primary act of 1912 after the Court of Appeals passed on them to-day, or rather regretted that it could not do so effectively, an concurring which the court remarked: "We well apprehend and deplore the possibilities of disaster to the rights both of candidates and voters that flow from the commitment into so many different judicial hands, some of them unskilled, and others, perhaps, partisan, the summary and final correction of evils designed to be prevented by the section of the act in question."

This section provides that: "Whenever it shall be made to appear by affidavit filed in the Circuit Court that an error or omission has occurred or is about to occur in the placing of any name on an official primary ballot or that an error or wrong has been committed or is about to be committed in printing such ballot, or in the performance of any duty imposed by this act, the court shall order the officer or person charged with such error, wrong or neglect, forthwith to correct the error, desist from the wrongful act or perform the duty or show cause why he should not be compelled to do so. Failure to obey the orders of the Judge or court shall be contempt of court and punishable as such. If the Circuit Court be not in session in the county, the Circuit Judge shall hear and determine the complaint in vacation unless he be absent from the county, in which case said affidavit shall be filed before the Judge of the County Court who shall have full power to hear and determine the complaint and make appropriate orders therein. The orders of a court or Judge under this section shall be final and not appealable. Only candidates may institute proceedings under this section." This the Court of Appeals said to-day is the exclusive remedy of the candidate, who cannot proceed in equity to secure his rights.

The effect of this provision was seen in three cases before the court to-day. The Clerk of Johnson county, refused to accept the petition of E. W. Robinson, who sought to become a candidate in the primary for the Republican nomination for Assessor, because he did not state that he had supported the candidates of that party at the last election as required by the primary act. He secured a writ of mandamus from the Circuit Court, from which the Clerk appealed. His appeal was dismissed, although the Court of Appeals declared the proceeding in mandamus was wrong and should have been by affidavit. A similar writ granted voters who signed Robinson's petition, was reversed and in that case the Court of Appeals held that the primary law provisions are constitutional, and the requirement that the candidate state for what party ticket he voted at the last election does not violate the constitutional guaranty of the secrecy of the ballot. Robinson consequently can get his name on the ballot, although he does not qualify as a candidate under the primary act, upheld by the Court of Appeals.

Trafficking in Questions.

Frankfort, Ky., June 21.—Some one has been trafficking in the questions prepared for the State teachers' examinations. How many applicants have secured possession of the questions is not known, but Superintendent of Public Instruction Barksdale Hamlett admitted that he has definite information that at least one person who came to Frankfort to take the examination had seen the questions, and an investigation is being made.

Applicants for certificates have the privilege of taking the examination under the county school superintendent at their county seats, instead of coming to Frankfort, if they desire, and the same questions are used in these local examinations.

Applicants are required to take an oath before being admitted to the examination, in which they swear they have not seen the questions to be asked, and are liable to prosecution if they swear falsely.

ARMEN LODGE No. 233.

The I. O. O. F. lodge instituted at Borderland, Ky., on the night of June 21, was largely the result of the labors of Mr. Williams Marra, of this city. He secured most of the charter members, and was honored by the appointment of Grand Secretary, representing the Grand Secretary of the State of Kentucky, Mr. Marra and James Picklesimer, another prominent Odd Fellow of this city, accompanied Grand Master Carr, of Ashland, to Borderland and participated actively in the work of instituting the new lodge.

ONLY ONE "BEST."

Louisa People Give Credit Where Credit Is Due.

People of Louisa who suffer with weak kidneys and bad backs want a kidney remedy that can be depended upon. Doan's Kidney Pills is a medicine for the kidneys only, and one that is backed by willing testimony of Louisa people. Here's a case:

Mrs. Margaret Holley, Louisa, Ky., says: "I never used anything that did me as much good as Doan's Kidney Pills. I know they will help anyone. My kidneys were weak and my back ached. I had pains in my head and sides. I was nervous and often became so dizzy that I had to grasp something to keep from falling. I had to get up several times at night and in the morning I felt all tired out. I used different medicines, but none did me any good until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. They made me feel stronger and better in every way."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

IMPORTANT TO S. S. DELEGATES.

Delegates to the County Sunday School Convention to be held at Louisa, July 9-10, are requested to send in their names for entertainment to C. B. Ross. This is important. A large delegation is expected and the good people of Louisa will be delighted to entertain all who come, provided the local committee gets the names of delegates in time to locate them.

The outlook for the convention is full of promise. The program is splendid. The speaking will be worth your while, the singing will be inspiring and the social touch will be helpful. A special invitation is extended to every preacher of every denomination in the county. All superintendents and teachers owe it to themselves and their schools to attend. Bring a message with you and come prepared to take back an inspiring report to your school.

C. E. HENSLEY'S POSITION.

The office of Jaller is the first I have ever asked at the hands of the good and loyal people of Lawrence county. I ask your vote only for one term of four years. I do not believe in a life tenure in office; believe it is repugnant to the principles of all parties. There are others who are entitled to recognition, and my idea is a four year term is sufficient for any man for Jaller. If you nominate and elect me I assure you that my acts as Jaller will be such that you will never be ashamed that you voted for me. If elected I assure you I will keep the jail and premises in a clean and sanitary condition.

C. E. HENSLEY.

Walker Mayo and Fred Walker, of Floyd co., were here last week, making final settlements in the Hickworth will case.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. No cases out of ten are cured by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular free. F. J. CHENEY, & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, etc. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

KENTUCKY NEIGHBORS.

Whitesburg.—In a fight at Dunham, a suburb of Jenkins, in this county, Pridemore Fleming, 32, was shot and fatally wounded by his cousin, Eli Fleming, 34, who was also wounded. The men at the home of a neighbor, where a dance was in progress, Pridemore Fleming began the shooting, it is said. The first shot passed through Eli Fleming's upper lip and the second through his left thigh. Eli Fleming returned the fire, shooting Pridemore Fleming through the left breast, inflicting fatal wounds.

All that was mortal of Mrs. W. M. Kendall, better known as "Aunt Paulina," was laid to rest in the family lot at the Salter graveyard, Thursday afternoon. One of the largest audiences ever seen on an occasion of this kind in West Liberty was present and the floral offerings were many and beautiful. Upon the face of genuine sorrow which attested, silently but eloquently the esteem in which the dear old christian lady was held.—Licking Valley Courier.

Woodford Howard, son of Harris Howard, of White Oak, won the scholarship medal at the close of the last term of the Millersburg Military Institute, Millersburg. He was also promoted to the rank of first Sergeant for next term of the Institute.

This is quite a distinction and one which Morgan-co., people should be proud was won by one of her sons.—Licking Valley Courier.

The oil well drilled in on the Fugget farm at Cannell City on Tuesday flowed 100 barrels before it could be stopped and gives promise of being one of the best wells in the field. It is owned principally by local parties.

E. N. Phipps has begun a well just below town, and the well on the Carter farm, near the bridge is down several hundred feet.

The last wells brought in at Cannell City extend the field considerably and the adjacent lease holders are greatly encouraged, and the prospects are good for speedy development.

The finishing of the Carter well here is being anxiously awaited, as upon it depends, in a measure, the development of the territory around West Liberty.—Licking Valley Courier.

At Garrison, Lewis-co., Tuesday afternoon, C. & O. passenger train No. 7 (Huntington Accommodation,) ran down and instantly killed track-walker McCauley, an aged man who had been doing duty in that capacity 28 years. The body was so badly mangled that it had to be gathered up in pieces.

A CONFESSION

Hopes Her Statement, Made Public, will Help Other Women.

Hines, Ala.—"I must confess," says Mrs. Eula Mae Reid, of this place, "that Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done me a great deal of good."

Before I commenced using Cardui, I would spit up everything I ate. I had a tired, sleepy feeling all the time, and was irregular. I could hardly drag around, and would have severe headaches continuously.

Since taking Cardui, I have entirely quit spitting up what I eat. Everything seems to digest all right, and I have gained 10 pounds in weight.

If you are a victim of any of the numerous ills so common to your sex, it is wrong to suffer.

For half a century, Cardui has been relieving just such ills, as is proven by the thousands of letters, similar to the above, which pour into our office, year by year.

Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients which act specifically on the womanly constitution, and helps build the weakened organs back to health and strength.

Cardui has helped others, and will help you, too. Get a bottle today. You won't regret it. Your druggist sells it.

Campton, Ky., June 21.—The citizens of this place have subscribed $10,000 for the purpose of rebuilding the court house at this place, which was recently destroyed by fire, and with the $6,000 insurance that was carried on the building they expect to raise enough by private subscription to build a $20,000 structure without any cost to the taxpayers of the county.

Four damage suits were filed last week in Floyd circuit court against the D. E. Hewitt Lumber Co., each petition alleging that the plaintiff's health had been impaired by the negligence of the company in failing to furnish them a comfortable house in which to live which it is alleged was a specific term in their contract of employment. Matthew Howell sues for $400 damages; Robert Gibson for $700; Amos Akers for $800; and Ben Moles for $1000.—Prestonsburg Monitor.

Charleston, W. Va., June 5.—The Public Service Commission, recently appointed by Gov. H. D. Hatfield, organized to-day with the election of Wm. W. Whythe, of McDowell county, Secretary. Whythe was not an applicant for the position, which was tendered him by the commission but he agreed to accept.

Another man has lost his life by falling from the big N. & W. bridge. About 3:30 p. m. last Monday Shelby Smith, who was working with the track-laying force on the N. and W. bridge, in some manner lost his balance and fell into the Ohio river, a distance of one hundred feet or more. The body has been recovered. The deceased was a son of "Bogie" Smith, night policeman of Kenova.—Ceredo Advance.

The Porterwood Lumber Co., Porterwood, W. Va., will develop 5000 acres of timber land, and intends erecting a single-hand sawmill with a daily capacity of 35,000 feet of lumber, largely hardwood. This company has been organized with a capitalization of $100,000, and its president is F. E. Wilson. Its selling agent is the Wilson Bros. Lumber Co., of Pittsburgh.

In the early part of last Saturday evening when the merry-go-round was being enjoyed by quite a number of children and others. Mrs. Wood, wife of Dock Wood, of West Williamson espied her husband enjoying the ride with a Miss Kains. This sight apparently was not to Mrs. Wood's liking and resulted in some gun play that for a few minutes made things lively and caused lots of dodging.

When the wheel stopped Mrs. Wood requested Miss Kains to leave her husband, it is alleged, but she replied she would not, where upon Mrs. Wood opened war, firing three shots from a revolver, one taking effect in the face, one in the leg and one shot going wild in the crowd.

Mrs. Wood was disarmed by the bystanders as quickly as possible and turned over to Deputy Sheriff Williamson, of Kentucky, who placed her in charge of a guard, but later she escaped into West Virginia and is still at large. The Kains' woman's wounds were dressed by Dr. Millard & Conley, and found to be only flesh wounds, and not serious.

James Chapman, son of Mrs. Willard Lambert of Ceredo, met with almost instant death yesterday about noon. He was driving a team in West Huntington when the horses became frightened and Chapman himself became excited and jumped from the wagon alighting on the street car track in front of the freight car, which ran over him. It was at once discovered that he was badly hurt about the head. The injured one was taken to the Huntington hospital, but his injuries were such that he lived only a few minutes.—Ceredo Advance.

West Virginia is rapidly increasing in importance as a pottery-producing State, according to the United States Geological Survey, its products of this class being valued at $3,365,166 in 1912, nearly 10 per cent. of the total for the U. S. This was an increase of $484,964 over the figures for 1911. The State now ranks third in the value of pottery produced, being exceeded by Ohio and New Jersey. West Virginia's product of chief value was white ware, of which it is the second largest producer in the country. The value of the white ware made in 1912 was $2,051,987, an increase of $131,693 over the figures in 1911. This product is made principally in Hancock-co., opposite East Liverpool. The contemplated county in the near future will add largely to its productive capacity and increase its importance as a pottery-producing center. Sanitary ware was second in value in West Virginia in 1912, being valued at $1,156,478, an increase of $341,879 compared with 1911.

We find the weather considerably colder here than in Kentucky, but oh, such a grand country. By seeing other country's and places we are enabled to make comparisons, the grand roads and the great rivers almost dazzle us, yet, knowing that we have as great a country as any in the world, our poverty belittles us when we compare. The state of N. Y., is a grand state and they are continually making it grander by work and improvements continually going on. At this place miles and miles of rivers and waters are

"I have had this wagon twenty-two years, and during that time it cost me only $6.00 for repairs, and that was for setting two tires."

"And after twenty-two years of daily use in good and bad weather and over all kinds of roads, I will put this wagon against any new wagon of another make that you can buy today."

"Studebaker wagons are built of air-dried lumber and tested iron and steel. Even the paint and varnish are subjected to a laboratory test to insure wearing qualities."

"No wagon made is subjected to as many tests or is more carefully made than a Studebaker. You can buy them of Studebaker dealers everywhere."

"Don't listen to the dealer who wants to sell you a cheap wagon, represented to be 'just as good' as a Studebaker."

Farm wagons, trucks, dump wagons and carts, delivery wagons, buggies, surreys, depot wagons—and harness of all kinds of the same high standard as the Studebaker vehicles.

HOME CIRCLE COLUMN.

COLUMN DEDICATED TO THIRD MOTHERS AS THEY JOIN THE HOME CIRCLE AT EVENING TIDE.

When Your Daughter Weds.

At this time of the year when June brides never fail to be numerous, the following sensible words that appeared in one of our valued exchanges will be read with interest. The editor uses the question, "Is there a mother who does not feel a little sinking of the heart as she sees her daughter go out of her home as a bride?"

"Most mothers delude themselves in the belief that by some alchemy of fate their children will be saved from all the ills of existence—physical or mental. How much better it would be if we taught our children to look life squarely in the face, so that when troubles come they will bear them bravely."

"If your daughter is to be happy in her wedded life, she must have learned from your precept and practice the duties of a home-maker. She must be able to care for a house properly, with or without servants; she must be well versed in the arts of cooking and plain sewing—but above all, she must look at life as it is, sanely and logically."

"After you have taken your last counsel with your daughter before her marriage, you might say to her: 'From tonight I shall not interfere in your affairs, as I know that all husbands and wives make the laws of their own households. What might be right for me and your father, may not be at all practical in your case.'

"Neither is it a good idea to tell me all the little annoyances that come between you and your husband, as the retelling of them only makes them seem worse. Do not think for a moment will not be near to help you when I am needed in any real trouble, but you must remember from now on you have elected to take up the reality of life, and if you truly love your husband and he loves you, nothing else will count in the balance."

"Your mother, my child, has done her best to prepare you for a happy marriage. My real work is finished; yours has just begun. Make me happy by carrying it on to fuller fruition than I have been able to carry mine, and I will feel that I have not lived in vain."

"Go my child, and joy and peace go with you."

Sing At Your Work.

At this season of the year one can learn a lesson of cheerfulness from the birds that warble their cheerful songs from morn until eve. Another lesson they both teach us is that the bird that has its nest in the small and thorny bush sings as sweetly and is as happy as the one that calls the stately oak its home. So it is with families. In the little cottage you often find the mother singing and more happy and contented than the one who dwells in the marble front. Let us learn a lesson from the birds and be cheerful in our homes, be they great or small. One wiser than us has the following lesson of the canary and inquires what is more cheerful in a home than a canary bird warbling runs and thrills of song all day long?

To be joyful and to impart his fine spirit of contentment to others seems to be the canary's chief business in life. And how he does take it! No grousing, no skimping, no hungry watching the clock for him! But head thrown back and throat rippling, he pours out his message of cheer with a zeal and heartiness and complete dedication in which there doesn't seem to be an element of selfishness or a particle of stingy reserve.

Why don't you, also, sing at your work?

There's a lot of value in the habit. It makes the snarls and ruffles in your own mind and soul and it is a mighty good example to others.

One audibly happy person in a household, office or workshop is often able to infect all the others, for nothing is so contagious as an emotion. It's next to impossible to stay grouched alongside a person who is singing or joking. And, unlike the one rotten apple which corrupts of all emotions is the emotion of happiness.

You could do this, too, by just taking a tip from the canary. To see the bright side, to impart joy instead of gloom, to be throughout a lifetime an infection center of happiness—of song have a show. You, with all the advantages of a mind and a soul ought easily to be able to beat a dumb canary if you really try.

He who can create his own happiness in the sphere in which he finds himself, has within him one of the real elements of success in business and success in winning happiness.

Act Well Your Part.

Our happiness in this life depends not so much on circumstances and surroundings as in our determined efforts to do our best in all conditions in which we are placed. Our common heritage is more or less allied to sorrows and pain, but we have within ourselves the antidote—the sunshine of the heart that will alleviate, if not remove many of our troubles. But we persistently reject the means of happiness that lie within our reach, by ignoring present small pleasures in hopes of enjoying greater ones in the future good time coming, which always keeps just ahead, and is unattainable. We cultivate little cares till they sometimes attain enormous growth by constantly dwelling on them and dolefully rehearsing them to our friends when we should do our best to rise above them. In the most difficult and trying conditions there will often be a brighter side.

A GOOD ROADS ASSOCIATION.

On June 14 citizens of Lower East Fork, Bolts Fork, Brammer Gap and Tatt, and all that section of country met and formed a good roads association, dividing the road into sections from Bolts Fork to Webbville for the purpose of putting it in good shape. There was a subscription list started and three hundred and sixty dollars subscribed towards working the roads.

We have not the names of all the parties who were there but V. B. Shortridge subscribed $100; Jess K. Woods $100; Morton Hammonds $75, the money to be spent along the sections where the parties live donating.

This is a step forward in the march of improvement. The best men in the county are alive to the vital importance of the roads movement, and there should be not let up until the whole county is a network of highways fit for travel.

IN MEMORY.

In loving remembrance of a devoted mother, wife and friend and a devoted Christian, we as friends and neighbors and as one who knew her in all her purity and unflinching zeal for good, and for the up building of her community and especially the training the young mind in the paths of righteousness. We wish to use this means of expressing our love for one that has gone from our midst to dwell with Him that has said: I go to prepare a place for you, I will come again to receive you unto myself. Mrs. Sarah Shivel Bishop Quisenberry was born in Henry Co., Ky., September 12, 1847. She was the daughter of Samuel Elston Shivel, of Lexington and Serilda Owens Shivel of the distinguished Owens family of Kentucky, formerly of Old Virginia. At the early age of 12 years she confessed her Savior and became a member of the church of Christ at Port Royal, Ky. In 1867 she was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Green B. Bishop, Mr. Bishop died the year following. To this union was born one son, L. G. Bishop, who was married to William C. Quisenberry. To this union were born three children, Mrs. J. W. Watson, Mrs. L. E. Giles and Colby. Mrs. Quisenberry had been in ill health for some time. All was done for her that loved ones could do, but God who doeth all things we'll release her from all suffering. Oh, how she welcomed the summons. As a very early age she accepted Christ as her Savior and she lived for him. She was loved by all who knew her, both young and old.

The funeral services were held in the church at Brammer Gap, where she was a member.

FROM TEXAS.

As to vegetation, spontaneous and domestic, there is quite a variety of each. Most everything that is cultivated in the north can be grown in Texas and many things besides, excepting the northern grains and clovers, they are said to burn out here. I have seen but one little patch of white clover, only about the size of a sheep skin. Alfalfa meadows will last many years properly cared for, and will make plenty for four crops. We have the crab grass and lots of "beach grass" and "fox tail." As to weeds we have here or five different kind of careless, among them a very prickly kind that will surely surprise a stranger before the season is over. I have seen careless as large as my leg at the ground. There are different kinds of pursley, one bunch or root may spread as large as a hot blanket if left alone. No perennials or Spanish needles. Texas dog fennel is scarce and very disagreeable to the mountain dog fennel. The cocklebur, morning glory, Jimson, etc., are the same. Wild flowers are very numerous and beautiful. Many are very aromatic. If conditions were favorable I think one could smell a bundle of wild alfalfa one hundred yards or more. It smells as strong as an old tobacco barn. Wild onions are plentiful.

CONTEST TRIAL ON.

The contest case between Judge J. M. Roberson, plaintiff, and acting circuit judge John F. Butler, defendant, over who, if either, shall be the first duly elected circuit judge of this the new 35th judicial district, created by special act of the Legislature last June, and comprising the counties of Pike and Letcher, was called for hearing before special Judge Allie W. Young, of Morehead, in the court room here Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock. The regular term of the circuit court, which had been in session for almost six weeks by the hard working judge and lawyers was adjourned only a few minutes before the noted case began.

On the start Judge Young was in excellent spirits, and wore a smile that was a positive encouragement to the tired attorneys. But this soon came off and gave place to serious looks as he pondered long and patiently over propositions of law in his earnest efforts to give to each side an equal measure of justice.

The array of attorneys present at this trial upon both sides was perhaps the most brilliant galaxy of legal talent ever assembled at one time in the court house at Pikeville. Ex-Judge Ed. C. O'Rear occupied the position as counsel-in-chief for Judge Butler, and he was assisted by commonwealth attorney W. H. May, of Prestonsburg, J. J. Moore, and Judge Butler himself. Upon the other side, E. D. Stephenson, who occupied so prominent a part in the contest case 5 years ago, which ejected several county officials from their posts, was chief counsel for Judge Roberson. He was assisted by Willis Staton, R. L. Miller, J. M. Bowlings, Charles Hobson, and, among a number of others, Judge Roberson himself.

Continuance Asked.

At the opening of the case Mr. Stephenson introduced a motion for a continuance of the case for a period of three weeks upon the ground that he was very sick and was not able to attend to the development of his case. Judge Butler demanded a trial, upon the ground that if the trial should be delayed he could not have time to enter the primary for re-election in the event he loses his case. For this reason Judge Young directed that the case be opened at once.

Agreed To Submit.

Judge Young explained that it was not his intention to impose hardships upon any one, but that a multiplicity of reasons and circumstances demanded as speedy a trial as possible, and that he would do almost anything upon his own part to secure it. He then proposed that each side submit their differences solely upon the record, pleadings and written testimony, and to that proposal both sides agreed.

But there were certain other questions that must be looked into before the case could be submitted. To settle certain charges of irregularities in Marrowbone, Caney, Pond and Burning Fork precincts, the ballot boxes were opened and their contents examined by two men picked by the Judge. In Marrowbone precinct Roberson gained six votes in excess of the official returns, and in Burning Fork ballots were found to have been pencil-marked A. and B. These and the other precincts which were not closed according to law were not allowed to enter.

At the evening session of the court the attorneys for the plaintiff delivered their closing arguments, and during the very brief session that followed on Wednesday morning the attorneys for the defense presented their oral reply.

With this the famous case closed at Pikeville, and Judge Young left at noon Wednesday hearing with him the record and all other minutes of the case for his further consideration at Morehead. He will return here very soon to announce his decision.

RESULTS OF EXAM.

County Supt. M. F. Campbell announced last Monday that out of the thirty-five applicants for certificates at the county examination held here last Friday and Saturday, ten received first class certificates, seven received seconds and three got thirds. Fifteen failures were announced. Emory Blackburn, of Pond creek and Oscar Thompson, of Pikeville, were the examiners. Rudolph Bentley and Miss Sallie Hurt, of this city were among those to receive firsts.

PROMINENT PIKE-Co. MERCHANT MOVES.

Millard Burke, who for years has been a resident merchant at Shelby Gap, has moved to Jenkins, where he owns another store. Mr. Burke has been very successful at his old stand, but went to Jenkins in order to be closer to the greater business. Mr. John Stone will have charge of the business at Shelby Gap.

THEATRICAL CHANGES.

H. R. Calloway, who has been the manager of the Royal Theater here since it was built last spring, has gone, with his wife and baby, to Corbin, Ky., to open a theater similar in character to the Royal in that city for his company. Mr. Calloway was very successful here, and his friends have many reasons to hope for his success also in the new territory.

Mr. Dennis, the machine operator, will have the management of the Royal during the summer.

Toke Wiseman has gone to London, Ky., where he will engage in the vaudeville theater business as an associate of Mr. Calloway.

DEDICATION.

The magnificent new Southern Methodist church building at cor. Main and Huffman-av., was dedicated last Sunday for divine worship. The Revs. W. H. McMurray, of Louisville, and W. B. Corder, of Ashland had charge of the ceremonies, which were very impressive and beautiful and the music, under the direction of Mrs. Wilhoit, was soul-inspiring and well adapted to the occasion.

A crowded house listened to both the morning and evening services, and the contributions promised, according to a statement given out, will completely liquidate the debt of the contract for the building. This is one of the magnificent religious structures of Eastern Kentucky, and its presence in any of the cities of the South would be a grace and ornamentation.

WRECK AT WOLFPIT.

By some unknown cause, nine loaded cars of coal were derailed and completely wrecked at Wolfpit, on the Marrowbone Branch Friday last. These cars were a section of the Marrowbone shifter outward bound. The grade on this branch of the road is slightly steep and it is thought a bad brake system may be the cause of the disaster.

Traffic on this branch was tied up for several hours.

PAVING STARTS.

The brickwork on the streets of Pikeville began Monday. With a large stock of brick on hand and a competent force of men to lay them, the streets will very probably be finished and ready for traffic by October first.

Died By Poison From Its Mother's Milk.

On Monday of last week an infant child of Mrs. Lydia Wells, who lives near Lavalotte, a few miles from Fort Gay, Wayne county, died under circumstances which caused the holding of a coroner's inquest. During the investigation it developed that the child's death was due to "headache" tablets taken by the mother. The tablets contained acetanilid, and through its mother's milk the child got enough of the drug to cause its death. Nursing mothers should use great care in taking any sort of medicine during the period of lactation. Some medicines do not affect the milk, others are taken up by it, and some of these, like the drug under consideration, are very hurtful.

Problem Yet To Be Solved.

The problem of paying pension claims, in spite of the fact the pension law says they shall be paid in a treasury check, is yet to be solved by the Auditor and Treasurer. Five hundred and four claims have been allowed, and 2,300 are awaiting the action of the Pension Board. Another payment will fall due in August, and when all these claims are allowed the treasury will have a disbursement of over $300,000 to meet. Not that much money is in the treasury. If State warrants cannot be issued in payment, all pensions may be postponed until the Legislature meets and makes a special levy of 2 1/2 cents.

The Business Men's League meets at the Court House next Tuesday night, July 1. Let every member be present.

Good Methods Must Give Place to Better

Perhaps you have been sending messages by mail or messenger. Both are good methods—but the telephone is better.

Perhaps you have been depending on customers to come in personally to your store, or on the order clerk who goes about on foot. That may be a good way—but the telephone is better.

Why not use the quickest and surest way—the Bell telephone?

Cross Mother—"Those children are worrying the life out of me to bake them huckleberry pie. But I daren't do it. It nearly kills me trying to rub the stains out of their clothes, as well as the table linen."

Anty Drudge—"That's 'cos you don't wash the Fels-Naptha way. Let the children have all the pie that's good for 'em. Fels-Naptha Soap and cold water will remove the stains in a jiffy."

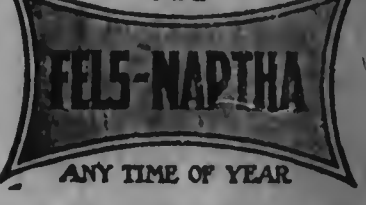

The value of Fels-Naptha Soap depends on how it is used. Fels-Naptha will wash clothes in cool or lukewarm water. Used that way it saves time, money, health and hard work. Your clothes will be cleaner, fresher and wear longer.

Don't insist on boiling and hard rubbing in the old-fashioned way. Fels-Naptha isn't made for that.
